Fair Chase in North America Craig Boddington

Hunting and outdoor enthusiasts will relish in the tales of hunting the big game animals that North America has to offer and glean tips for making their next hunt successful. Originally published as a regulars series in Boone and Crockett Club's quarterly magazine, Fair Chase, this collection will both inspire hunters young and old and bring to light the reasons many of us hunt today.

Join Boddington as he writes about all aspects of the hunting experience, whether it's the special charm of being in caribou country in the early fall, with the low scrub turning golden and crimson and the ptarmigan shifting to white or techniques for hunting the elusive, unpredictable, and adaptable black bear.

Reading this book may just inspire readers to book that once-in-a-lifetime hunt they have always dreamed about.
