Homecoming Susan X Meagher

They say there's no going back, but Jill Henry gives it a try when she's invited to a once close friend's birthday party.

The Davises were her family of choice, helping her flourish despite her emotionally arid home. They're ready, willing and able to welcome her back. But Jill doubts that welcome will remain warm if she acts on her urges to pursue a member of the clan.

Jill has created a very good life for herself, one that's almost perfect. But when you finally meet the right woman you might just have to jump—no matter the consequences.

It's tough to mend a frayed emotional tie, and even tougher to trust it to endure. Is creating a family, whether new or renewed, a reward worth any risk?
