Have you had your share of unhealthy relationships? Are you consistently making the same poor choices over and over? Well, do you want to know how to wait for the husband God has for you? It takes courage, patience and a close relationship with God to wait for His best. The Waiting Room is a daily devotional that uses the perfect blend of spiritual and practical disciplines such as praying, meditating, journaling, de-cluttering and fasting, to lead single women to focus on the most important relationship, our relationship with God. What does having a deep relationship with God have to do with waiting for the right husband? Everything. Without God in our lives it's difficult to live a purposeful and successful life. Whether we're single or not, God should be the foundation, the Corner Stone, of our lives. And any marriage built on God has a greater chance surviving any and all marital issues that certainly will come. So, please join me in this 31-day journey of reflecting, forgiving, cleansing, aha! moments and much more and learn how to purposefully wait for your heart's desires.
