God longs to have intimate encounters with us during our times of praise and worship. He longs to show us His glory and reveal Himself to us in amazing and magnificent ways. He has prescribed a way for us to approach Him so that we can have these wonderful encounters and experiences with Him. This simple to read handbook gives guidelines and helpful tips that will enable worship leaders to be more effective as leaders, and enable the lay person to more actively participate and be more fully engage in the worship experience.

This book deals with topics such as:

- The Leading of Praise and Worship
- Flowing Prophetically in Praise and Worship
- Ascending The Lord's Hill
- Praise as a Weapon
- Hindrances to Worship

These are just a few of the topics discussed in this book. Just as David inquired of God how to bring up the Ark of the Covenant; let us dig in and inquire of what God requires of us in order to experience His manifested glory in our worship services.
