Originally published: 1959

"Two crooked cops, a red-hot blonde, and a million in cold cash."

"Two big-city cops ... Bucky was young, strong and ambitious. Doc was older, smart, knowing all the ropes. They were partners – on special assignments and all the graft, including the favors of a red-hot blonde. And then came the big case, a kidnapping, and they wound up in a shabby, smelly hideout, with a million dollars cash, and no place to spend it!"
