Hearts Crossed (Buchanan Saga Book 4) Anita Stansfield

In a rush of heart-stopping adventure, this thrilling continuation of the Buchanan Saga begins as a member of Garret Wentworth's sailing crew is killed under mysterious circumstances, and Garret himself visits the man's daughter in America to deliver the unfortunate news. Brandy Ashton instantly takes Garret's breath away, but he just as quickly learns that her heart is already taken by none other than a philandering cad who is the mastermind behind a worldwide smuggling operation, with Brandy in the center as an unwitting pawn.

As Garret, smitten by this beautiful, courageous, and good-hearted woman, fights to protect her from a danger she doesn't understand, he prays she will hear the truth her heart is trying to tell her—before it's too late. In a fierce battle between good and evil, Garret and those he loves lay their very lives on the line, and a tragic end could come at any moment. After years of searching for his soul mate, and then finding her, has he come this far only to lose it all in a single catastrophic moment?

Anita Stansfield has once again woven the ultimate historical romance filled from beginning to end with high adventure, villains and heroes, dangerous liaisons and delectable intrigue. Most of all, Hearts Crossed is a tribute to true love and the miracle of finding it.
