Unveiling Evil: A Comparative Investigation Into the Nature of Evil and the Mormon Perspective

Ronald R Zollinger Ed.D

UNVEILING EVIL is an investigation into the nature of evil, how evil is defined and personified within different cultures, philosophies, and religious paradigms including a Latter-Day Saint (Mormon) perspective. UNVEILING EVIL includes a review of how the historic woman has been delimited within this paradigm. UNVEILING EVIL offers an outline of nefarious legendary creatures that have woven their intrigue into historic and contemporary literature and media. UNVEILING EVIL discusses the issue of demonic possession: scripturally, historically, and neurologically. UNVEILING EVIL dismisses the real threat of a personified evil being and challenges the reader to look within in order to rid one's person and the world of the motivation behind the evil acts that have been the demise of humanity.
