Whisperings C. K. Bailey

Jessie Winston believes that as a therapist she should be able to heal her own emotional wounds. After all, she's saved countless others from their nightmares. But she can't seem to overcome her own haunting past—especially at night. Now Elliott, her boss, is forcing her to seek help. Dr. Ryan Blake wouldn't even consider working as a therapist again if he didn't owe Elliott his life. Perhaps he can help Jessie work through her torments, even though she seems to dislike him. However, as Ryan is drawn back into the world of healing, whisperings from his own past emerge, and he must face the role he played in the loss of his wife and unborn son. As Jessie and Ryan share a journey of mystery, forgiveness, humor, and love, a truth greater than either could imagine is about to be discovered.
