Gomorrah and Sodom. Two floating cities connected by one stone bridge is survived under the darkness of thick clouds. Both rivals and prisoners to its world. And with it an over population threatening the balance of their dying world. But for Jake Dubois, a detective working for the police department of Gomorrah city, now a veteran and famous crime hero, he is confronted with the greatest case that has been haunting his city for generations.

With it an old religion, long forgotten by mankind has surfaced. And finds detective Jake Dubois only to drag him into its spiral of evil mystery that reveals an onyx stone that is linked to good and evil and holds the truth that was taken from mankind. And how the detective's love life soon was to fall into the wickedness plan of the fallen angels who holds something very dear from his past.

Now detective Jake Dubois is left with little time in solving the mystery behind the fallen angels that have lived amongst them for centuries. In hopes that he can restore balance and peace between both cities. But things can only get worst as he reveals a taunting past to the truth behind his dying world. Realizing that the fallen angels are not the only dangerous enemies lurking in his city.
