When raiders ransack his desert town, Jamzire embarks on a daring rescue mission to save his enslaved kinsmen. The brash youth and his companions abruptly become entangled in a warlord's dark intrigues. They find themselves consorting with rebels, thieves, and a possible lunatic posing as a prophet in their efforts to thwart the land's depraved ruler and his assassin. Stalked by fiend spawns and haunted by dreams that promise betrayal, Jamzire is unable to trust those closest to him. He has little faith in his own visions of a great exodus to a fair land far to the north; nor can he give his heart to the fair and mysterious nymph who wishes to lead him there. Sorcery and palace politics finally force his hand and his hopes come to rest on his ability to forgive the very bandits who killed his family and destroyed his innocent town. A harrowing pursuit begins, tossing the young leader into the voracious jaws of a Destiny that seeks to swallow him whole. Destiny Blind is an adventurous tale where mankind's best attributes are pitted against his worst failings. With a dusting of sorcery, philosophy, romance, and mystery, the fast-paced action and intrigue will capture fantasy readers of all ages.
