Forty singing seamen,: And other poems, Alfred Noyes

My acknowledgments are due to the Editors of Blackwood's Magazine, The Fortnightly Review, The Spectator, The Bookman, The Speaker, The Nation, The Outlook, and Country Life ;also to the Editors of The Standard and The Daily Mail Literary Supplement, for permission to reprint some of the following poems. A few have appeared in book form in America, and are now published in this country for the first time. Others are quite new.

(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
