Childhood friendship turns to love in this dark reimagining of the fountain of youth. In 1919, Charlie returns from WWI and gives his heart to Julia. As their love story begins, tragedy strikes when Julia contracts a deadly illness. On her deathbed, dreams of a future together shatter, but Charlie refuses to give up, convincing Julia to drink from a vial of “healing waters” his war buddy swore would bring spontaneous healing.

Julia's miraculous recovery brings hope, but the water's murderous side effects snuff out the couple's short-lived joy. Can Charlie help Julia fight the water's call to kill? All their efforts may be in vain when Julia has to choose between running from the curse or embracing it in order to save Charlie.

Journey with Julia and Charlie through a love story that spans a hundred years and an age-old curse that spans more and worse, puts Charlie's life and Julia's soul at risk.

Oh come on your reading through sixth sense already said so why you have to listening to one more sixth sense.

Gladys Jackson:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Killing Cure: Drink can make you really feel more interested to read.
