Finding a Tarot Spread that is comfortable for you to use is as important as knowing what the meaning of the individual cards. Everyone has different ideas about what makes a good Tarot Spread. I have included several in this supplement to the Handbook. I encourage you to play with them and see what you like best. Keep in mind that you may find different spreads work better in different situations.

The Basic Tarot Spreads in this book are perfect for all kinds of question and types of readings. They can be used as “overview” or “general information” spreads, or they can be tailored to a specific type of situation, depending on your needs. For each spread included, you will find a diagram with a number on each position. The diagram is followed by a correlating meaning for the specific position of each card.
