Provocatively, I began to sway my hips back and forth. “Is this what you want to see?” I purred. “How do you like it so far?”

When Lakeisha comes home for the summer, she's resigned to be spending the summer in Detroit all alone: she won't be seeing her boo Derick for three whole months. Looks like she'll have to make do with a few lonely fantasies while sunning in the backyard. But then a chance meeting with her old white neighbor -- and the shocking secret he accidentally lets out -- give her an idea.

“You really think I look like her?” I said.

It's going to be a summer that she will never forget!

Not to be read by anyone under the age of eighteen!
