Preschoolers and Kindergartners Moving and Learning: A Physical Education Curriculum (Moving & Learning) Rae Pica

A complete movement curriculum for preschoolers and kindergartners

Give children opportunities to explore all kinds of movement, to find and use their own personal rhythms, and to feel good about participating in physical activity. This curriculum incorporates more than 80 developmentally appropriate movement activities designed to help preschoolers and kindergartners develop habits that encourage lifelong health and fitness and success in all areas of learning.

Everything you need to get started is here, including:

An introduction to implementing physical education into your curriculum

An explanation of the ways creative movement supports children's physical, social/emotional, cognitive, and creative development

Tips to create a positive learning environment, suggestions for adding equipment to activities, simple questions to evaluate whether or not the children are meeting the activity's objective, and information on how the activities meet early learning standards outlined by NAEYC and AAHPERD

Twenty lesson plans with four 45-minute activities per plan—plus extensions and adaptations for children with special needs

Curriculum Connectors that identify each activity's correlation with content learning areas

A CD filled with original music to add joy and energy to the activities
