Violet: Kenzie Elizabeth, She was the most amazing person you could ever know...She was my rock, my best friend of all time. I know you will always be with me, Sis. Love you, girlfriend! Sky: Kenz, was my everything, I was her Romeo and she was my Juliet, I just wish Juliet was faking when I found her and that I would have been the one in the casket and not her...You will be missed, baby! Kenzie: “We come together today in mourning the loss of a daughter, sister, friend, and girlfriend. Kenzie Elizabeth Hart was a spirited girl.” Stacey: I will always remember coffee on Thursday mornings, and our late night talks. I wish you were still here, K. I won’t ever be the same...Miss you, Love you! Why do I cut, some ask? It feels good. I can watch my own pain and suffering bleed out from me, only to make room for more pain and suffering. Hi, I’m Kenzie, and you’re about to read about my struggle with cutting, how it finally got the best of me, and the effect it had on my family and close friend’s. You see, I’m what they call an outcast and no one likes an outcast, not even the outcasts themselves. My sister Violet is head cheerleader and one of the most popular girls in high school, if not the only popular girl in high school, she shines in everything she does and her beauty is out of this world. She’s pretty much just all around awesome. My best friend Stacey and Skyler are the best things in my life next to my sister. Skyler’s dad is a preacher but he never has time for Sky, poor kid, and his mom never seems to be fully there mentally or emotionally for him either. Stacey and I have been friends forever and always will be no matter what happens. No matter what happens. I would tell you more but then what would be the point of you reading this book? So, go ahead and flip to the Intro and we can get started...
