Double Blind: A Kate Benedict Paranormal Mystery (Volume 2) Carrie Bedford

A year after seeing her first death-predicting aura, Kate Benedict is coming to terms with her unwanted gift - she's ignoring it. But that changes when she sees auras over two leading politicians and decides she has to warn them of their impending doom. The only way to reach them is via her old friend, DCI Clarke but, like Cassandra of Troy, her warnings go unheeded. Kate's frustration builds when her best friend, Anita, refuses to believe in the existence of auras — even when one appears over Anita's head of department in the hospital where she works. Racing against the clock, and with little help from the police or friends, Kate chases down a kidnapper and uncovers the identity of a killer, who's smart enough to sense that Kate knows more than she's letting on. Set in London, Double Blind will appeal to fans of traditional British murder mysteries and to anyone who likes female sleuths.
