Religion in Sociological Perspective

Keith A. Roberts, David A. Yamane

Religion in Sociological Perspective Keith A. Roberts, David A. Yamane

This fully updated Fifth Edition helps students understand and apply the theories and research methods of the sociology of religion. While the authors cover the major theoretical paradigms of the field and employ various middle-range theories to explore specific processes, they use the open systems model as a single unifying framework to integrate the theories and enhance student understanding. Throughout the book, the authors analyze the contributions and blind spots of each theory and emphasize the relationship between research methods and findings.
