How are we to become true believers who seek God's good pleasure? How are we to become mindful of God, to be thankful or worshipful? How are we to control our anger and pride? How are we to follow the example of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him)? This inspirational book of wise advice answers these questions and guides us toward the spiritual life. Khurram Murad (1932-1996) was the director general of The Islamic Foundation, United Kingdom, and a renowned teacher who spent 40 years in the spiritual teaching and training of thousands of young Muslim people around the globe. He has published more than 20 works in English and Urdu."

Stephen Redmond:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this [(In the Early Hours : Reflections on Spiritual and Self Development)] [By (author) Khurram Murad] published on (January, 2010) can make you experience more interested to read.
