Novelist Julie Jenson was told by her agent she needed to put more passion into her characters. But how? One night on a whim, Julie stops at the Pussycat Club and meets exotic dancer Tammy Taylor – blonde, beautiful, and totally uninhibited about her sexuality. Julie offers to hire the young stripper for two weeks to be her mentor; to teach the woman all there is to know about love, romance, and sex. Tammy moves in with Julie and begins to instruct her on the various aspects of romance, intimacy, and sensuality. The author soon discovers what it is to love, to give your heart to another person freely and completely. Only after Julie has fallen for her lovely young instructor does she realize their experiment has gone too far. But how can Julie tell the sexy and sensuous Miss Taylor about her feelings? And what will happen to them after the two weeks are over? Explicit sex and language.
