Holmes gets an invitation from one of his friends to investigate what is going on in his casino. Holmes did not know that a quick tour to Monte Carlo would turn him from a renowned detective to a fugitive from law. Within 72 hours, he finds himself running from people at both sides of law and to top all the things, Watson was not with him. Would Holmes be able to get back to his Baker Street flat safe and sound? Would he be able to clear his name in the eyes of every one? and would he be able to find out his best friend Dr. Watson?
