Book One: Sweet Desire Agnes Hunter, a woman with a Type I diabetes and Matthew Chandler, a handsome billionaire crossed paths through Agnes' blog. On their first meeting, it's all about business. Matt has only one thing in mind: get as much information from Agnes that he knew will help his niece who was recently diagnosed with diabetes as well. What they both didn't expect was the spark between them that arise every time they were together despite the dark past that haunts both of them. Agnes is starting to fall for Matt but at the same time worried. Will it be another failed relationship just like what she had in the past? Or, it's going to be a success for her heart this time? Is Matt the answer for the romance and sweetness that her heart desires? Book Two: Almost a Happy Ending Everything is falling into place for Agnes and Matt. As time goes by, their desire for each other only grows stronger as they share hot, steamy, wild nights together. They were having the best time of their lives especially for Agnes who is not only experiencing the luxuries she never expects to enjoy, but most of all, she found a great man who truly love her despite her sickness. Matt is the man who quenches her thirst for romance and heat. But there has been a sudden turn that Agnes didn't expect to happen that made her question her future with Matt. Now that everything seems perfect, will it last long? Will there be a happy ending for their love story considering the new diagnose complications brought about by her diabetes? Book Three: Against All Odds Agnes was devastated when it was finally confirmed that one of her kidneys is failing due to diabetes. She choose to ignore it at first with an assumption that it's better to enjoy the moments she have with Matt than to face her fear. But when her condition gets worse and starts to get out of control, she couldn't find the courage to tell Matt everything considering the loss that he had in the past and the uncertainty whether Matt has the heart to stay with her or not. She's in great pain not only because of her health issue but because of the thought of not being with Matt for long. She now wonders if there is still a hope for a better health and a better life for her. More importantly, she wonders if there's still a hope for her love for Matt...
