For Corners Brad Baker

He was having a bad day. Then it got worse when a bully pushed him too far. Now he has dropped out of school and to make matters worse, his father kicks him to the street to make a man out of him. FOR CORNERS is his story. A tale of teenage angst set in a world of failed wilderness survival, mislead plans and hopes and a sarcastic, nagging voice inside his head. From high school to an independent bookstore in small Texas town, this is the story of a dorky loser who takes a chance to rewrite his small life and of the people who help twist it into perspective. Besides its short, so what do you have to lose? I mean, you got this far so why not read the rest of this story of a boy, a bully, and all those people in between. A few hours of your time and no one gets hurt.
