The Road to Pentecost is a Bible study prepared for publication by Blessed Is She that is based on the fifty day liturgical season of Easter. Daily meditations, reflections and prayers invite the reader to focus on the post- Resurrection teachings of Jesus and experiences of his apostles. The lessons are revealed in light of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, inviting the reader to consider how she is called to live the fruitful life of a disciple of Christ in her own daily commitments and vocational duties. Colleen Mitchell writes with a heart to open the Scriptural imaginations of women and offer them an intimate look at God, his Word, and its relation to their lives. Colleen offers this study is an invitation to her Blessed Is She sisters to join her in embracing the joy of the resurrection and the fire of the Spirit that are the inspirations for true discipleship.
